DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 1-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, line 6 it's not clear where the cooling requirements are being assessed.

Applicant states in line 6, "the cooling requirement assessed at a". This claim appears incomplete.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1,2,18,20-22 & 26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Cray et al (US Patent No. 5,131,233). Cray discloses a gas-liquid forced turbulence cooling comprising: a plurality of separate individual computing sections each of which is primarily contained within its own separate housing (23) and whereby each housing is divided into an upper logic module chamber (24) and a lower power supply chamber (26) and contains electronic computing integrated circuit (IC) components. Cray further discloses a cooling system (20) having plurality of individual spray nozzles (32) for cooling the logic module chambers by distributing cooling liquid – moreover the pressure differential across the nozzles are regulated and establishes a desired flow rate of cooling gas and the flow sprayed cooling liquid through and over the logic modules (28).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 19,23,24 & 25 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 3-17 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
